

Roses

Beautiful blooms, combined with winter hardiness and disease-resistance, make lovely additions in the home landscape. All roses are 'own-root' (not grafted). Although they may start out small, they will not revert to the rootstock after a harsh winter.

Selections may vary based on availability. Spring Plant Sale 2025.*

Species

Rosa Glauca (Red-Leaf Rose)
Harrison's Yellow (hybrid foetida)

Old Garden Roses

Bourbon

Boule De Neige
La Reine Victoria

Centifolia, miniature

Burgundian Rose

Damask Perpetual

Sidonie

Gallica

Charles de Mills

Hybrid Perpetual

Reine Des Violettes

Moss, miniature

Scarlet Moss

Noisette

Aimee Vibert

Portland

Marchesa Boccella

Hybrid Tea

Dainty Bess
Firefighter
Pretty Lady Rose
Sweet Mademoiselle

Shrub

Champlain
Distant Drums
Edith's Darling
Flower Girl
Heritage
Morden Centennial
Morden Sunrise
Ruby Voodoo
Sally Holmes
Tess Of The D'Urbervilles
Watercolors Homerun
Penelope (hybrid musk)
Raspberry Rugostar (hybrid rugosa)

Grandiflora

Anna's Promise
Twilight Zone

Floribunda

Angel Face
Brilliant Veranda
Celestial Night
Cinco de Mayo
Earth Angel
Easy Does It
Ebb Tide
White Licorice

Climber

Aloha
Autumn Sunset
Quicksilver
Summer Wine
Jeanne Lajoie (miniature)

Groundcover

Gourmet Popcorn
Red Ribbons
White Meidiland

Miniature

Cal Poly
Life's Little Pleasures
Sweet Chariot
The Gift (polyantha)